PETITIONING THE COURT

To schedule a Status Hearing to consider defendant's health status and his ability to comply with current conditions of supervised release

CAUSE

On December 18, 2013, Gardley was sentenced to 135 months imprisonment, followed by five years of supervised release for committing the offenses of Conspiracy to commit Bank Fraud, Mail Fraud, and Wire Fraud; Bank Fraud, and Wire Fraud. Supervised release commenced on June 27, 2022.

On June 27, 2022, Gardley was transported by the Bureau of Prisons to Sunrise Hospital due to his debilitating health status, and his lack of resources to provide for his own medical care.

On June 29, 2022, the undersigned officer made contact with Gardley's nurse and social worker at Sunrise Hospital. It was verified that Gardley previously suffered a debilitating stroke and that he only has control of the right side of his face and his right arm. According to the nurse, Gardley is considered a "maximum care patient" and that he will be required to reside in a live-in medical facility for the remainder of his life. The undersigned officer spoke with Gardley who appeared to be cognitively aware; however, he has difficulty with comprehension.

As the Court has been previously made aware, Gardley has no support system and will need full-time medical care. Currently, there is no anticipated discharge date from Sunrise Hospital.

The instant offense is Gardley's only arrest and conviction. He does not have a documented history of substance abuse or mental illness, and as such there are no conditions for treatment. Considering Gardley's health condition, he will be unable to comply with conditions of release. Additionally, he will not be able to obtain employment, which will make enforcing restitution remittance in his case difficult.

The probation office is recommending that Gardley appear before the Court, so that consideration can be made as to both his physical condition and his ability to comply with his current conditions of Supervised Release.

Should the Court have additional concerns please contact the undersigned officer at (702) 271-6309.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the information contained herein is true and correct,
